

Author Disclosure and Copyright Transfer

Manuscript title:

Author(s):

I acknowledge that the manuscript cited above represents original work by the authors and that the material in this manuscript has not been previously published (except in abstract form), nor will be submitted for publication elsewhere until final action has been taken by the American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education. For any portions of the manuscript that are reproduced or adapted from a copyrighted source permission has been obtained in writing and is attached to this form. Under this publishing arrangement, I agree to obtain, in writing, all licenses, waivers or permissions that may be required in order to include in the published work any material in which copyright is owned by others. I agree to indemnify and hold AACP harmless from any claims made against AACP, including AACP's costs of defense (e.g. reasonable attorneys fees), incurred by reason of the author's failure to obtain same.

All named authors have made substantial contributions to the intellectual content of the manuscript and have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for the content.

If this manuscript reports experiments on humans, I certify that the research was approved by an institutional review board or determined to be exempt from such review.

In consideration of the action of the American Association of Colleges of Pharmacy (AACP) in reviewing and editing this submission (manuscript, tables, and figures), I hereby transfer, assign, or otherwise convey all copyright ownership, including any and all rights incidental thereto, exclusively to AACP, in the event that such work is published by AACP. The author retains the right to distribute the published manuscript provided that all such use is for personal noncommercial benefit.

I certify that all financial and material support for this research and work are clearly identified in the manuscript, or, that there are no relevant financial interests in the manuscript, or, that all my affiliations with or financial involvement (eg, employment, consultancies, honoraria, stock ownership or options, expert testimony, grants or patents received or pending, royalties) with any organization or entity with a financial interest in or financial conflict with the subject matter or materials discussed in the manuscript are disclosed below or in an attachment.

This statement must be signed by an author who has the consent of all authors.
